

for those interested in process, I am posting this beginning. I work all of the areas together, orchestrating value, color, and drawing. I work from large shapes toward the smallest shapes. (the "big tone approach" if you are a Loomis fan. who's not?) this is about 40 minutes into the painting.

